

News from the Nest....

- It was a great week back at school after break! A little icy and we thank parents for being careful on the icy roads.
- 4th Graders celebrated their immigration unit by having a Pot-luck event with food from their heritage. What an amazing variety of food from around the globe!
- We had 150 students join us at Skate City this afternoon! The next Skate City and First Friday will be March 6th - put the date on your calendar!
- Many 5th Graders joined the Shadow Day at Hamilton. Ask them how it went!

School News

- Kindergarten, 1st Grade and 2nd Grade Families - Mr. Yaden has put together a holiday show for these grades this year! Here's the breakdown: December 12th – 2nd Grade will combine their Holiday Show and IB Night. Go to your child's classroom starting at 5:00pm. We will then transition to the Holiday Show after the IB presentations. Should be a night full of fun! December 18th – Kindergarten and 1st Grade will have their Holiday Show starting at 6:00pm. Kindergarten will perform first. Once they are done, they will sit on the floor while 1st Grade transitions to the stage for their performance. Mr. Yaden is looking forward to this performance and the kids are gearing up for some fun!
- Thanksgiving Turkey Trot - Thank you to our Bradley and UHills community for braving the COLD weather on Thanksgiving! Mr. DeMaria and group was able to donate about $1,100 (the most raised to date!!) to Bradley for our families in need for the holiday season!
- Please check the Lost and Found across from the main office. All items will be donated on December 20th.
