Mr. Wera's Weekly Words...

- Remember there is no school tomorrow, Friday, February 2nd!!
- Our 3rd graders celebrated the end of their "Cities" unit with great presentations, complete with passports, poster boards and tons of interesting facts. Great job!
- We completed our mid-year interim assessments this week in grades K-5. Congratulations Bradley Eagles!!

DPS News

- The DPS School of Choice process began today and runs through February 28th at 4:00 p.m. Please visit the Bradley website to get more information about the Choice process. Everything must be done online this year. There are no more paper forms. If you have any questions, please stop by the Main Office.

PTO Happenings

- This is a friendly reminder that Spelling Challenge pledge money is due next Friday, February 9th. This important fundraiser allows the PTO to pay for student tutoring as well as technology needs in the school. Teachers receive 50% of what is raised in their classroom in pledge money. Thanks for your support of this event!
- Join us at our upcoming PTO meeting next Thursday, February 8th at 4:00 p.m. Childcare will be provided. The focus will be the Casino Night and Auction, which is Saturday, April 28th at Maggiano's Downtown and is the PTO's next big fundraiser. We will be forming committees, discussing donations and brainstorming other ideas! We need your support to pull this event together, so stop by and see where you can help us.
- Are you clipping and saving your Box Tops?? We need as many as we can get for our spring submission. The due date is Monday, February 26th. There is a box located on the PTO table across from the Main Office.

Community Events & News

- Active road construction on Yale will begin next week with heavy equipment arriving in the area in preparation for work to begin. Once again, be prepared for traffic delays and single lanes of traffic in both directions.
